

NEVER COMPROMISE SAFETY

Your working environment may bring its own challenges.

Sustained high temperatures / cold temperatures, high noise levels, low light levels, difficult postures significantly impact human performance.

This increases the risk of workplace injury and aviation safety events.

Infrastructures and PPEs contribute to limit the impact of these environmental factors on yourself & your activities.

Mitigations can be set up for the problems you identify.